Users

Agent

User Access

Agent Access

Proxy

Public Backup Network

Public Backup Network

Cloud backup (commvault)

Portal

Web Portals
(Command Center+ Web Console)

Media Agent

Management Tools

Backup internal Network

The Cloud Backup service using Commvault can be accessed using a firewall-protected public network by the user or accessed by an Agent balanced by a Proxy, connected both to the internal backup network and the backup public network. The service is provided by means of a web portal available to users for basic tasks and via an Agent, handled by management servers, which connect to Media Agents, namely, servers with disks containing the service data.